

President's Update – December, 2022

To All NGJA Members,

Happy holidays everyone!!!

The 2022-2023 season has begun and below are several updates to share to help you prepare for the coming gymnastics season.

- NGJA Certification and Testing – Of the over 500 paid NGJA members, 428 have completed their Compulsory test and 408 have completed their Optional tests. DON'T PROCRASTINATE any longer!!! Take your exams now as the testing period is set to expire on Dec. 31!!!
 - A reminder to all course directors... make sure all your judges have passed their exams before making assignments!
- USAG Sr. Men's Program – The USAG/NGJA independent selection committee has completed the assignment of officials to the 2023 USAG JD and Sr. men's program national competitions. You can find the assignments on NGJA.org at <https://www.ngja.org/national/ntnl-intl-assignments.html>
- NCAA Men's Program – The NCAA will start competition on Jan. 7, 2023.
 - The NGJA/NCAA interpretations - this document is being updated and a new version will be published by the end of the year. It will be critical for you to refer to this document to accurately officiate all NCAA competitions.
 - NCAA Challenge – the 2022 NCAA challenge was just completed and congratulations to this year's winners.

FINAL STANDINGS

1. Low Bar Specialists – Jonathan Corbitt, Greg Ter-Zakhariants, Phillip Pruett, John Scanlan
 2. Li Ning toward giving credit – Jon Karmecy, Dan Graham, Jon Klemens, Josh Seltzer, Curtis Wilson
 3. Team NorCal – Tom Kutz, Michael Ashe, Greg Ter-Zakhariants, Sho Nakamori
 4. May the Horse be with You – Bob Busse, John Scanlan, Wyatt Baier
 5. Guinness Judging – Felipe Mendonca, Douglas Bernabe, Rodrigo Caron, Francisco Arce, Julio Bernal
- FIG Information
 - FIG Newsletter #2 and the NGJA/USAG interpretations document have both been posted at <https://www.ngja.org/fig.html>

I wish each of you and your families a safe and healthy holiday season!

Mike Juszczuk

NGJA President